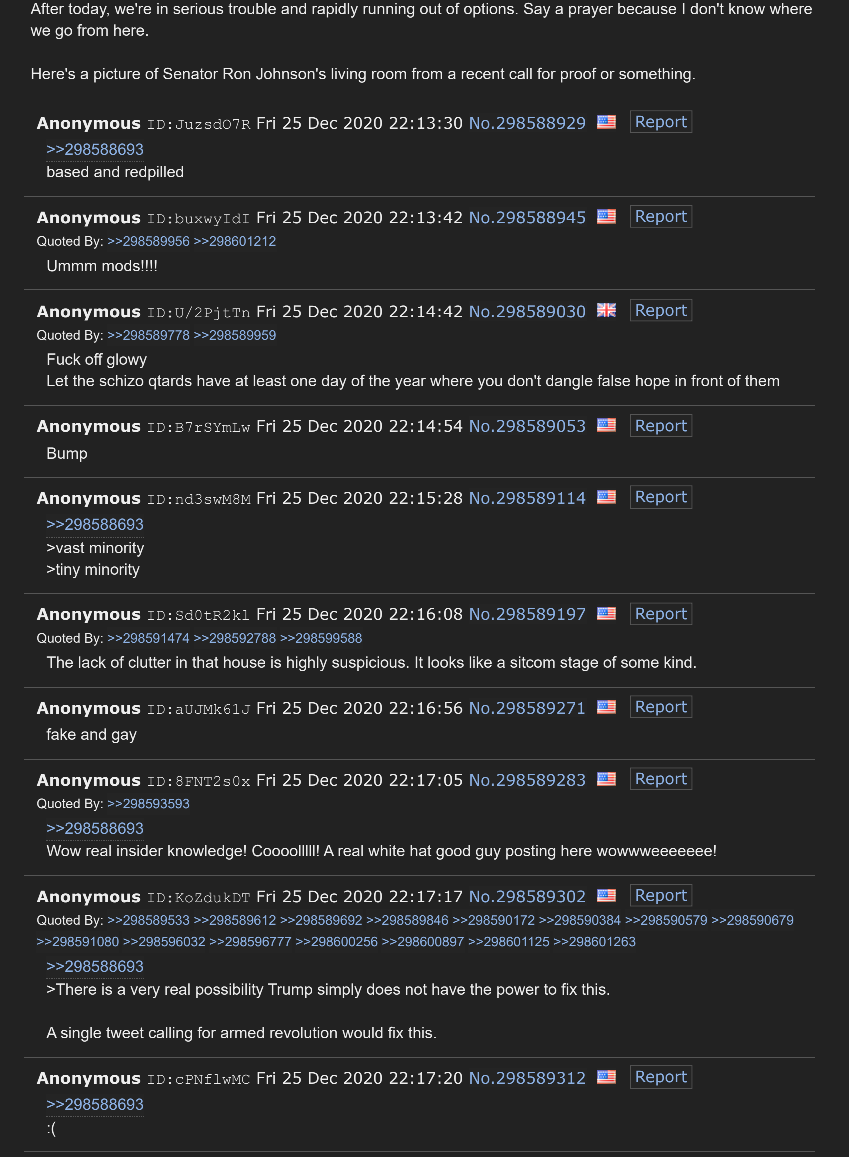
I have been working with some of the key players in this war for months now. This is the first time I have posted anything here.

Trump has been trying to make the moves, and he is being blocked at every turn by traitors revealing themselves at an ever increasing rate. Today was a failure. Schiff was captured yesterday by white hat FBI and interrogated, and actually gave it all up in record time. That Nashville data center held, among other things, a CIA data vault holding stolen CIA and FBI software from the Brennan/Comey years, including the vote-switching software, as well as Dominion audit data. White hat electronic access was attempted from outside the authorized network of Blackberry phones and tripped alarms; the firefight was white hat FBI vs some manner of CIA. They cut the fiber to prevent remote access and black hat FBI have taken control of the scene and servers now. They're securing and moving other key locations across the country as we speak. White hats are a vast minority and there simply aren't the resources or manpower to match them. You probably heard about some shootings or firefights. Truth is they're a tiny minority of what's actually happening right now, and what is happening right now is our fate as a Chinese vassal state is being sealed.

This fight is honestly becoming disastrous. The corruption is bottomless, and trust is constantly betrayed, scuttling one plan after another after another.

We're running out of fallbacks. There is a very real possibility Trump simply does not have the power to fix this. The clowns saying he hasn't played his cards are idiots. They are being played one after another and failing before they begin, almost entirely to entrenched and hidden corruption.



After today, we're in serious trouble and rapidly running out of options. Say a prayer because I don't know where we go from here.

Here's a picture of Senator Ron Johnson's living room from a recent call for proof or something.

JFK

Moon landing
Everything that Israel has done

And so on.
We dont need the president to do all this shit for us, he's only one man.
If Congress doesnt elect Trump on the 6th, we just storm the Capitol building and drag all the swampies out and execute them right there on the steps in our PvP minecraft server. Call it a LARP if you like: the level of public rage is mostly hidden but very real, and vastly underestimated.

if youre not just some faggot larper and it really is all ogre if drumpf fails then the best option is to just fucking dump EVERYTHING on-hand at once. literally fucking every last bit of info available to you. at the same time trump himself must make the declaration to the public that the entire nation is being subverted by the gooks and encourage viewing the data dump as proof and scorch all ties to china. ban travel, restrict citizenship for the insects, boot them out, burn their products, ban trade. if the alternative is we irreversibly become chinese/jewish livestock i really dont understand the hesitation. more than likely its all just manufactured entertainment to kick off full scale modern slavery, trump will fail the people and so will you and it'll all be over before it happened. but this is a larp so haha funny

The only bit of that is worth not cuffing round the ear and tossing into the trash by the scruff of the neck is the connection to what I'm going to say, understand that all of tech and most of politics and civil service is compromised.
It is because the billionaires in all walks of life owe their allegiance not to America but to a pipe dream of a global state and the power behind it all is the money behind Davos and the world economic forum.
As we have seen there's little chance of voting thorough this unless you were to see for example Trump and Nigel form an express radical party to specifically REFORM (destroy globalism) the corrupt sectors.
One was planned btw. Nigel is up for it. So it's not quite a uniform conspiracy.
We actually have all the bottom line power. There's hundreds of millions of us.

According to Patrick Byrne and Simon Parkes:

>there was that meeting
>Patrick Byrne was there >a argument erupted between Pat Cipollone and Mark Meadows against Trump >it was about Trump wanting to appoint Sydney Powell as special council in the white house
>They called his bluff, and then he did it, which caused them to start screaming at Trump about it
>Patrick and Flynn had to stand between them, with both stating they were tempted to punch them
>Both Pat and Mark also argued with Sydney, Flynn, and Rudy >Sydney, Flynn, and Rudy wanted Trump to use martial law, but these two did not want that >Trump decided to "give democracy another chance" and called off doing martial law
>According to Byrne, after this meeting took place, that is when Mark and Pat started what he calls a "iron curtain" over Trump
>Anybody trying to talk to Trump, they would intercept them and lie to make them go away, they wouldn't let anybody talk to Trump at all
>After Trump verbally approved Sydney as special council for the white house, these two refused to let Trump answer her phone calls, refused to let her set up a place at the white house to work at, basically pulled the rug out from under here
>Both have stated that they need to see what he tweets before he tweets it for "security and safety", and if they disapprove it, Trump cannot tweet it
>A large number of people have been coming forward stating these two refuse to let them speak OR call Trump at all, even when Trump requests them personally

This is what is really going on.

If this is real, Trump need to set it on fire on the way out. Declass, and air washingtons dirty laundry. Let the chips fall where they will. A lot of people would probable die, an in fact it's akin to nuking ourselves to remove cancer. But corruption runs deep, and for every American that would do the right thing, 10 are benefiting from the current fucked up system in some way, another 10 are bought out by china, and 79 are too poor, weak, or otherwise just want left alone.
Congress just spent 6 months fiddling while the economy imploded due to corona, fear, and true incompetence from Americas "Leaders". 2021 is going to be an absolute shitshow and even anons here are barely aware. If you want real change, you get people angry enough that they're forced to take matters into their own hands. Ironically, congress may have done just that by coming up with that total joke of a relief bill that Trump veto'd. No home, no food, no job, and nothing to lose is a dangerous combination for any society.

Ironically the political right, while being well armed, is totally crippled by the same- they will do anything to keep them, knowing that the smallest step out of line means they could lose their 2A rights. This combined with the fact that right leaning people tend towards order and hierarchy means that unless given "marching orders", they'll do nothing. Paranoia abounds and except for small groups, militia types are still pretty poor at group communications.

I wish there was an "easy" solution, but at the individual level there just isn't much people can do. Even large group or drastic action would just be a speed bump, with limited long term impact. What do we do?

According to Byrne, Trump is actually a very nice guy in person, not at all like he is portrayed on TV or on camera. He likely just doesn't have a clue on what is going on. Trump calls people to come and meet him to hand him documents, and these two fuckin clowns are waiting at the door for them, and tell them that Trump changed his mind and doesn't want to see them, and then they tell Trump that they never showed up. Its bullshit and pisses me off. The goal is literal demoralization on the president to make him feel isolated and alone.

He looked tired, exhausted, frustrated, and near the end, was BEGGING governors to simply let them forensic audit the dominion machines, challenging them, saying "if you think we won't find anything, then let us try, don't want you want to prove to the nation that the election was fine?" This wall of silence is fuckin bullshit.

Simon is stating that we need the Assange pardon because it means getting testimony from him on Seth Rich.
Eh, my main point is that Byrne is one of the few people speaking about what happened at the meeting that was there in person. I've been waiting on Sydney or Lin to state that he has been lying. They were there in person at the meeting too. It hasn't happened yet. Which tends to imply that, he isn't lying, or at least not enough to make them take notice. Simon's comment on the meeting was that, the white house officials basically talked Trump out of martial law so that he can give democracy another chance, and that Sydney, Flynn, Lin, and Rudy were all for martial law.

Thats what i mean, a bunch of non-arguments, you may as well say that germany is resposible for 9/11. Also kek that the biggest ally of israel calls germany a vassal state to israel, but then again, you just throw non-arguments around because you are most likely very low iq. Like most trump voters.

If Trump really is fucked, at least salt the earth for Biden. Force the corruption of the incoming admin into the public eye. Shouldn't be hard with the amount of CCP buyoff going on. Make it so America's next president in 6 months is the Speaker of the House, and no one wins- either left or right. Yes it would be an absolute disaster. If you cannot remove the infestation from the building, you burn it down. Suffering and death are regrettable, but not as much as watching the spirit of millions be crushed. Look the world the Davos / Green New Deal folks are offering everyone- a utopia for a chosen few, Neo-feudal slavery for the rest. Do we really want to give that world to our grandchildren?

You're talking about the election but he ran on defeating the fake news. Media is the nervous system of the body politic. It tells a country what is harrowing, what is wrong, where to go and how to move. It's the brain, (along with higher education and NGOs/"think tanks"). Taking on higher Ed may have been asking a lot. But, he had four years to take on news and entertainment media. He did *every! single! interview!', as president, with the same fake news he claimed to want to destroy. He fed ZERO oxygen to alternative news sources...that could've easily made RedTsunamiii and this election a fucking blowout that the Democrats simply could not have cheated enough to win. He needed no Congressional approval to do these interviews. He had Breitbart and "alt-news" /local news in the White House Press Corp for a fucking month before kicking them out for asking too many questions about the Wall. The Wall that he started brewing "serious" about, asking with FINALLY starting a Twitter/Reddit/Facebook alternative (Parler)... in 2020.you know, around election time and far too late to draw back the fence sitting voters he'd lost after his inaction on fake news/Wall, his return to GOP policies, after running on nationalist-populist ones, and after his retarded, bone headed Sunday Gunday asshole supporters took over TheDonald.win with every other post talking about "look at this green - hair FAGGOT FREAK", etc. These people, at most, made up, you know, 1/7 of his base. This, ONE DAY being "for them" (Sunday). What happened to the other themed days? Gone. What happened to the high-energy positivity, community, and sense of comradery and self-improvement that got him elected as a, essentially, third party candidate? I spend literally years, dozens of accounts trying to say them back to sanity. The forum SAS either taken over by bigoted idiots too fucking dumb to see where the election was headed. Or...

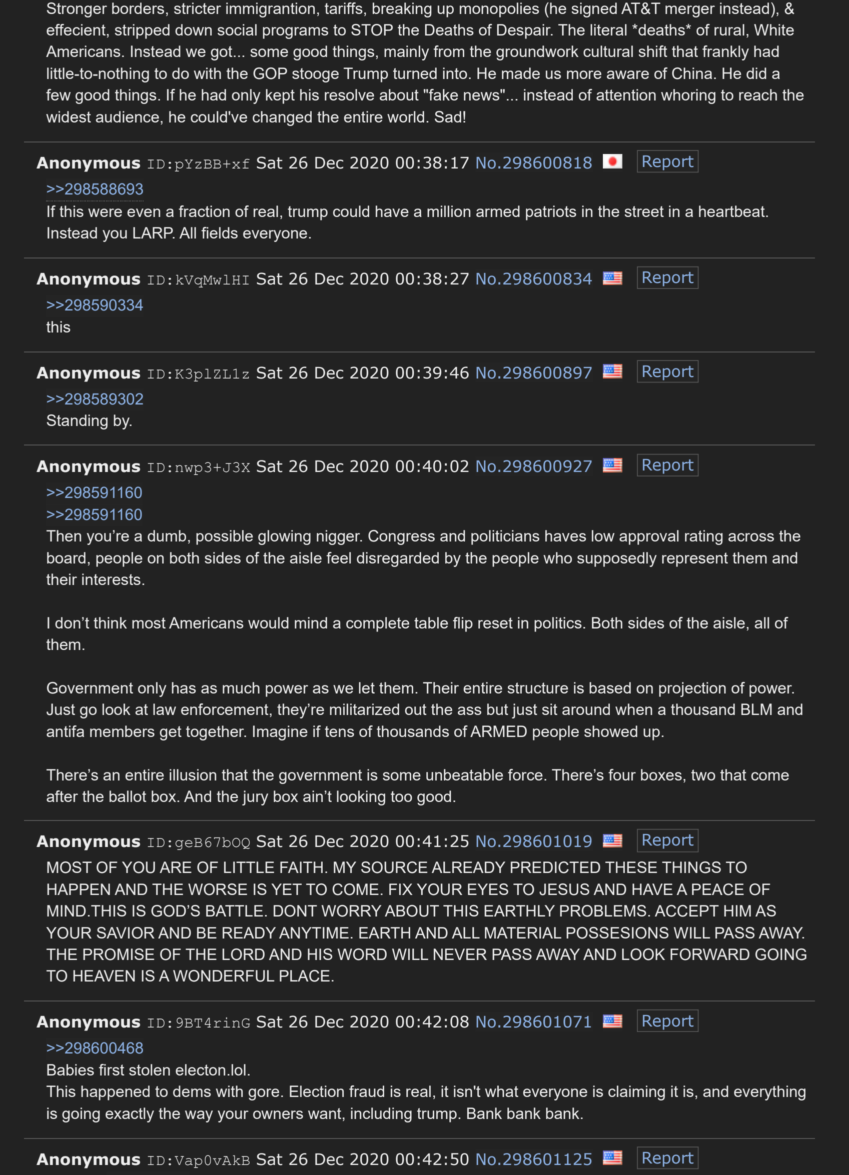
[2]...taken over by people completely against his election hopes. Sunday Gunday crowd, God bless you. You make the rest of us look sane, and keep the government off my ass. Thanks! But you were voting Trump no matter what. The swing voters weren't. And your repulsive, boorish behavior chased them away. I told you as much and you banned me. Many, many times. "DefendTheWest" "DrugsandKnowledge" & literally dozens of other accounts. Fuck TheDonald.win though. Was funny watching those "fuck faggots!" (amusing in its own lack of self awareness) & "look at these freaks!!"-type threads DRY THE FUCK UP days after the election. You'll never know how many tears of laughter I shed at that! Or, how fucking painful it was to to be right. But, any fool could see it coming. I tried at the very end but my heart, frankly, wasn't in it. Three long years of disappointment. Of watching MAGA suddenly hold up Ronald fucking Reagan as some sort of idol. (What the fuck was that about, btw?) Firing Bannon should've been the first sign. Saying, "watch what happens to him next!" & Trump getting him fired from Breitbart should've set off alarms for me. But, I'd invested too much.

Trump said he'd "consider" raising taxes on the 1% ("on people like me") during the primary. Clearly, he had no intention of doing any such thing. As we saw. Make America Great means Making Americans Great.



Stronger borders, stricter immigrantion, tariffs, breaking up monopolies (he signed AT&T merger instead), & effecient, stripped down social programs to STOP the Deaths of Despair. The literal deaths of rural, White Americans. Instead we got... some good things, mainly from the groundwork cultural shift that frankly had little-to-nothing to do with the GOP stooge Trump turned into. He made us more aware of China. He did a few good things. If he had only kept his resolve about "fake news"... instead of attention whoring to reach the widest audience, he could've changed the entire world. Sad!

Then you're a dumb, possible glowing nigger. Congress and politicians haves low approval rating across the board, people on both sides of the aisle feel disregarded by the people who supposedly represent them and their interests.

I don't think most Americans would mind a complete table flip reset in politics. Both sides of the aisle, all of them.

Government only has as much power as we let them. Their entire structure is based on projection of power. Just go look at law enforcement, they're militarized out the ass but just sit around when a thousand BLM and antifa members get together. Imagine if tens of thousands of ARMED people showed up.

There's an entire illusion that the government is some unbeatable force. There's four boxes, two that come after the ballot box. And the jury box ain't looking too good.

What do you think people would actually do if Trump tweeted for "we the people" to rise up? People would not show up to work next week to go where and do what exactly? If people really wanted to rise up and save the country, they should have started that years ago to put themselves in a position to be one of the white hats of today. Probably more military, law enforcement, or private security experience, and less shit posting, NEETing, and cooming would have gotten people there.

Just something to think about in the future if we all luck into the orange man saving our sovereignty for us so we don't end up in this situation again.

Trump really only has two options, concede or fight.
>Concede
Trump makes a deal to protect his family and walks away with his tail between his legs after 5 years of promising to drain the swamp. Look at Trump's latest tweets, it looks like he is going to fight. He basically is tweeting videos about how politicians make money from the CCP & foreign govs.
>Fight
He has already exposed the media, justice system & fraud elections. This will not sit well with largest civilian armed populace in the world. The election fraud part will not fly for very long. It will go full on 1776, taxation without representation, people are pissed now, just wait until Biden's masks for the first 100 days, followed by the Covid-21 agenda.
Evidentiarily it will become good vs evil. If Trump does not have the power behind him, he may just have to finish redpilling the nation for a revolution/insurrection. Maybe that was the plan all along?
